

SPRING BOOK DRIVE

HOSTED BY SIGMA TAU DELTA ENGLISH HONOR SOCIETY

FEBRUARY 20TH – MARCH 20TH 2017
BATTEN ARTS AND LETTERS BUILDING
OLD DOMINION UNIVERSITY, NORFOLK, VA

In collaboration with Sigma Tau Delta, The Humanities Behind Bars Program is excited to announce its Spring book drive to expand the Norfolk City Jail Library!

Before selecting books for donation, please note jail rules: All Books MUST be paperback. The jail won't accept novels written by James Patterson, Stephen King, Patricia Cornwell, Tom Clancy, Dean Koontz, and the like. Books must be of a non-violent, non-sexual nature.

The drop-off sites for books during the entire drive will be in the 5th Floor Lobby of the Batten Arts and Letters Building at ODU, as soon as you exit the elevators. Beginning February 27th, a second Collection Box will be found next to the 1st Floor Information Desk in Perry Library

Suggested Donations

General:

- Dictionaries
- Self-Help Books
- Adventure Novels
- Mysteries
- Science Fiction
- Great American Novels

Student Requests:

- Anything by James Baldwin
- African American Literature
- Black History
- U.S. History
- World History
- Napoleon Hill
- Hill Harper
- Jim Crow
- Spanish Language Instruction
- The God Awakening Diet
- Alkaline Herbal Medicine
- Fashion Drawing and Design Books